

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Christine Casey, 860.698.6267
cwsmcasey@gmail.com

Three Doors to Death*, Asnuntuck Community College Foundation 14th Annual Murder Mystery Dinner Friday, March 31, 2017

GREATER ENFIELD - (December 30, 2016) Get ready for an evening of fatal fun as the Asnuntuck Community College Foundation, Inc. hosts Three Doors to Death, where the audience decides which way the action will go during a rehearsal at a community theatre performance. The 14th Annual Murder Mystery Dinner Auction will be held on Friday, March 31, 2017, at the Holiday Inn in Enfield, Connecticut.

Proceeds of the event support scholarships for Asnuntuck students, as well as funding of programming, projects and equipment for the college.

Charles Miller, Miller Farms Family Markets-ShopRite has agreed to act as Honorary Chairperson of the event. Committee members include Carolyn Tkacz Chairperson, Carmela Brennan, Tasneem Chaudhry, Cheryl Chiasson, Julie Cotnoir, Rob Earley, Jackie Guzzi, Carol Hall, Joyce Keating, Robyn Lee, Kim Quinn, Lisa Reda, Sally Rowell and Kathleen Tallarita-Lombardi.

Reservations for Three Doors to Death are $60.00 and include, social hour, three course dinner, silent and live auction, a fun filled evening of entertainment, as well as a tax-deductible donation.

Sponsorships are available from $2,500 to $100 and include a variety of marketing opportunities and guest reservations. For more information, please call event organizer Chris Casey of Chris Casey Concepts at 860.698.6267 or email cwsmcasey@gmail.com. To sponsor or attend the event, please go to www.asnuntuck.edu/donate.

-END-