The Nadia Kober Writing Scholarship

The Nadia Kober Writing Scholarship honors a good writing student already studying at ACC and planning to continue here. It was established in December of 2007, by John Sheirer, ACC English Professor.

Awards

John Sheirer pledges to donate $500 per year for an unspecified number of years. Funds will be temporarily restricted, not endowed. The Foundation will grant one $500 Nadia Kober Writing Scholarship each year that funds are available and at least one appropriate application is received.

Process

Students must fill out the Asnuntuck Community College Scholarship application. Interviews will occur only if necessary to determine the best possible candidates.

Requirements

- Be at least a half-time student (6-Credits)
- Apply for a degree program
- Provide transcript of ACC course work (an unofficial copy will be accepted)
- Provide a letter of recommendation from an ACC faculty member
- Answer all questions on the scholarship application
- Have minimum G.P.A. of 3.0
- Have completed at least one semester at ACC and be continuing at ACC
- Must answer the following question in one paragraph:
  How will Asnuntuck Community College assist in achieving your goals for future success?
- Write a one-page cover letter addressing the topic, “What has been your approach to writing assignments in your courses at Asnuntuck?” and submit 10-20 pages of written work produced for credit course at Asnuntuck during the academic year of application. The writing can be of any type (non-fiction, fiction, poetry, etc.).

Distribution

The scholarship will be awarded at the annual Asnuntuck Community College Awards Night in May. A personal invitation will be mailed to recipients early in May. All recipients will receive an awards announcement in the mail.

Your Application package must include:

- Page one and two of the application form
- Transcript
- Faculty member letter of recommendation
- Response to the questions listed above

Application must be returned with all of the required documents listed above by the deadline stated to be considered for an award.

Asnuntuck Community College Foundation, Inc.
170 Elm Street, Enfield, Connecticut 06082